Gain a certification for your anti-bribery programme

ISO standards are an internationally recognised way to prove commitment to and implementation of best practices and controls.

ISO 37001 provides a global standard against which companies can measure their anti-bribery management system (ABMS). The standard harmonises guidelines from major anti-corruption regulations and was developed by experts from around the world.

- ✓ Build trust with stakeholders
- ✓ Establish credibility in the market
- ✓ Gain a competitive advantage
- ✓ Stabilise partner ecosystems
- ✓ Increase operational efficiencies
- ✓ Reduce the risk of prosecution for non-compliant stakeholders

The Speeki solutions – pre-certification services

Management Briefing

Obtain a comprehensive understanding of the ISO 37001 standard and the steps needed for certification based on your business model and operations.

If you are struggling to explain the business value of an ISO 37001 certification to management and executives, or you need help facilitating a discussion about certification with other stakeholders, you should consider our Management Briefing training solution.

Readiness Assessment™

An interactive workshop designed to assess objectively how your organisation's anti-bribery management system measures up against the requirements of the ISO 37001 standard.

Speeki experts will walk you through each requirement to identify which controls and processes you have in place, as well as areas that require improvement.

This workshop can be conducted on site or remotely.

The Speeki solutions – pre-certification services

Pre-Audit™

Determine your organisation's readiness for a certification and understand how the process works prior to conducting the actual certification audit.

A fully qualified auditor assesses your system comprehensively, allowing you to gain a thorough understanding of your system's strengths and weaknesses. Common terminology and structure between the actual audit and the Speeki Pre-Audit™ optimise your chances of achieving an ISO 37001 certification.

ISO 37001 Training

ISO 37001 Management Briefing – Articulate the business value and specific benefits of proof through certification and develop buy-in for certification across your organisation.

ISO 37001 Lead Implementer – Learn the technical aspects and value of the ISO 37001 standard on anti-bribery management systems.

ISO 37001 Auditor – Audit ISO 37001 in accordance with ISO international best practices and techniques.
